YOUR NEW ROLE AT THE TRUST

JOB TITLE:	Impact Manager	PAY BAND:
FUNCTION:	Programme Development	Support Delivering Specialist/Managerial Technical Lead/Function Head Senior Leadership Team
THE TEAM:	The Insight & Impact team is responsible for bringing insight to the organisation through a broad range of impact measurement and user research methodologies.

WHERE YOU WILL FIT

CEO	Director of Programme Development	Senior Head of Insight & Impact	Impact Manager
-----	-----------------------------------	---------------------------------	-----------------------

HOW DOES THIS ROLE IMPACT YOUNG PEOPLE?

Making an impact in young people’s lives is at the heart of everything we do. Being able to understand, evidence and measure that impact is vital. It enables us to learn and improve the support we offer young people. It is also important in maintaining the trust and confidence of our funders and supporters, and giving us the credibility to influence government, employers, and other sectors of society to play their part in maximising opportunities for young people.

WHAT WILL YOU DO?

-  Manage evaluation business processes to ensure we can monitor and measure our impact and performance
-  Work closely with the Data & Analytics team to develop products for the collection, storage, use and data protection compliance of young people’s monitoring data.
-  Work closely with key stakeholders across The Trust, maintaining guidance materials and building capacity for best practice to improve data culture across the organisation.
-  Act as the Impact lead for projects that develop and improve centralised evaluation business processes, digital products, and systems.
-  Work closely with Delivery and Design colleagues to support the design and delivery of our programmes to young people and meet a range of stakeholder needs for evidence.
-  Maximize the value of evidence produced by the impact team through proactive and tailored communication with key stakeholders.
-  Provide an advisory role to support evaluation activities undertaken by colleagues throughout The Trust.
-  Support the development of the value and capability of the Impact function, including building knowledge of sector relevant standards and communicating this to the organisation.
-  Lead on Theory of Change work for the programmes that we want to develop to support young people into employment and education.
-  Manage independent evaluation projects to maximise their value in providing learning and evidence.

THE SKILLS YOU'LL BRING

All of the roles at The Trust are key to our success and there are certain skills we need to be successful. And while we will shortlist the most qualified people for the role, we ask everyone for a supporting statement. If you think you could do the role, but don't have all the desirable experience, we would still love to see an application from you.

WE REALLY NEED YOU TO HAVE THESE

Skills & Knowledge	Why do we need this?
Good command of data collection methods	High quality data collection is critical to the way in which we evidence our work and drive improvements
Ability to oversee data collection and research projects using a range of quantitative and qualitative methods	We need a range of evaluation methods utilised appropriately to best understand our impact
Strong quantitative analysis skills	These skills will underpin all of our insight and impact work
Experience	Why do we need this?
Experience of using data and insights to facilitate decision making	You will need to make recommendations based on evidence
Experience of managing multiple and significant projects, to deliver high quality results on time and to budget.	To oversee and deliver on evaluation and research projects as well as transformational projects that will develop the way we understand our impact

WE WOULD LOVE IT IF YOU COULD DO THIS

Experience	Why do we need this?
Experience of developing a Theory of Change or logic model	This underpins the design and development of all our programmes for young people so experience in this area would be beneficial
Experience of implementing monitoring and evaluation processes	To enhance knowledge of methodologies and best practice within the team
Experience of the youth sector, especially provision in education, employment, or personal development	It would be beneficial to understand the challenges facing young people, and the evaluation approaches and frameworks used in the youth sector
Experience of tracking outcomes to monitor the effectiveness of an intervention	This team is responsible for supporting the development of our programmes and assessing their impact
Experience working in agile multidisciplinary teams	You will need to work across a large variety of stakeholders from Data and Analytics, Programme Design, User Research, Programme Delivery and Fundraising
Skills & Knowledge	Why do we need this?
A relevant skills-based qualification in qualitative or quantitative analysis	As these skills are critical for this role, it would be beneficial if you can evidence qualifications in this area
Highly developed data presentation skills	We need to effectively communicate to a variety of audiences, including external
