THE SKILLS YOU'LL BRING

START SOMETHING

All of the roles at The Trust are key to our success and there are certain skills we need to be successful. And while we will shortlist the most qualified people for the role, we ask everyone for a supporting statement. If you think you could do the role, but don't have all the desirable experience, we would still love to see an application from you.

WE REALLY NEED YOU TO HAVE THESE

Skills & Knowledge	Why do we need this?
Superb relationship management skills with the ability to inspire & provide exceptional customer service.	The Young people, partners & incredible volunteers we work with deserve nothing less. Providing them with an exceptional experience will result in better outcomes for young people.
A strong understanding of the challenges young people within The Trust's target groups face.	This will be key when matching needs of young people, partners or volunteers to ensure the right support and provision is put in place.
Excellent attention to detail and knowledge of CRM system e.g. Frontline.	You will own the data for your assigned young people, partners or volunteers which will be essential from meeting the needs of safeguarding, communication, training, and support.
Compelling communication skills – both written and verbal.	You will need to communicate with a wide range of stakeholders with varying levels of experience and seniority. Your ability to communicate well will be critical to your success.
Knowledge of Safeguarding, and Health & Safety practices and processes.	To ensure The Trust safeguards staff, young people, partners, and volunteers.
Experience	Why do we need this?
Experience of working accurately and with good attention to detail.	It is essential that we capture caseload management notes, volunteer updates and information that will inform funding and contract reports.
Working with external organisations to secure successful partnerships.	Relationships with partners are critical in helping us to give young people the best possible support.
Experience of working to targets and Key Performance Indicators.	Our targets and KPIs inform our planning, requests for support and are based on our contractual obligations – and how we work with young people.
Working effectively across different departments and teams to drive shared results.	Expertise from across the organisation helps us to give the best possible support to young people – working well collaboratively as one organisation is key to achieving our aims.

WE WOULD LOVE IT IF YOU COULD DO THIS

Experience	Why do we need this?
Experience of supporting young people within The Prince's Trust target groups.	Understanding the challenges and barriers that young people face is key to supporting a diverse group of young people.
Experience of working with, or as a volunteer.	We have over 5,000 volunteers who are the longest serving and largest part of our team and play a critical role supporting our activities.
Experience of working within the charity sector.	This is the sector we operate in and prior knowledge would be advantageous, however, we have many colleagues who successfully join us from other sectors.
Experience of delivering skills development / training across education, employability, and enterprise.	You will be the first line of support for our young people, partners and volunteers and be required to support them with formal and informal training / guidance.
Skills & Knowledge	Why do we need this?
Knowledge of relevant external young person provision / partnership and volunteer networks.	Being aware of existing local / national networks will be helpful. This builds positive relationships internally and externally which enhances the provision for young people.
Knowledge of Health and Safety practices and processes.	To ensure The Trust is a safe place to work, volunteers and partner with.
Ability to adapt to changing projects / tasks.	Emerging funding opportunities such as Health & Social Care & Kickstart mean we will always need to adapt our flexible delivery models to meet the needs of young people.
